

THE PROMISE

The Declaration of Independence

Lead Paragraphs

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

- Recognition of God's Sovereignty
- Rights of Independence and Self-rule
- Equality of Man
- Blessings of Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness Unalienable
- Purpose and Authority of Government

The Fulfillment

The Constitution of the United States

Preamble

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

The Great American Miracle

As the people accepted the responsibilities of self-rule, blessings of Heaven flowed. The most common American enjoys blessings greater than those of kings past. God's rule is self-rule [The Ten Commandments and Sermon on the Mount]. Rejection of the responsibilities of self-rule is a rejection of God [1 Samuel 8:6,7 and 10:9].

INDEPENDENCE MOVEMENT

The people, purpose, and plan to re-establish Freedom and Liberty in America.

The Independence Movement plan will;

Clean up politics

Restore the power of the political process to the people

Return America to prosperity through self-rule and individual sovereignty

You are called! Declare Independence Now From

- Party Politics-Right and wrong should not be measured by a political agenda. Being Independent is a better way to be American!
- Special Interest-If justice is not blind and equal, it is not real justice. We must bypass all special interests seeking special status. Support independent candidates for government. Ask who pays for their propoganda? Why do they want to buy my representatives influence and try to sway my vote?
- Mob democracy-It does not make it right just because the majority agrees. You are a minority of one. Our Republic must protect your individual rights as well as responsibilities. Mob democracy must not destroy the equality of man (see Declaration of Independence) protected by law in a true Republic.
- Money Power-America is no longer for sale. We cannot afford to support those whose goal is to sell off enough influence so they can buy an election. Money no longer gets a vote! Return the power to our people!

The American Independence Movement quest is to use the Jefferson/Moses Model to:

- Find our very best statesmen. Call them to run for political office. We call and campaign. Candidates put aside self-interest to serve America.
- As a citizen's support organization, we support candidates to keep them truly independent. We'll have support going in and accountability coming out. We intend to deliver better government.
- Raise up a people to fully accept and participate in the responsibilities of self-rule. This is your government. It is worth saving. If you let others run and ruin your government, then you get the government you deserve.

FREEDOM COMES FROM INDEPENDENCE

INDEPENDENCE COMES WHEN WE ACCEPT THE RESPONSIBILITIES UPON WHICH THE INDEPENDENCE IS BASED.

God's rule is self-rule. Rejection of self-rule is a rejection of God. (1 Sam 8:6,7 and 10:19).

THE RESORATION OF OUR REPUBLIC

The purpose of true religion is to teach us correct principals so that we can govern ourselves.

The purpose of correct government is to protect our rights so that we can practice true religion.

Through True Religion and Correct Government we enjoy the blessed state of being a nation of Kings and Priests unto God (Rev.1:6, 5:10, 20:6, 21:7). This is the essence of God's work with man (Justice and Mercy) and how we seek to bring the order of heaven to earth.

When we look up things will look up!

Six simple concepts to save our republic

*(Taken from the book, The Restoration of our Republic)*

- Hope; We accept the divine promise of restoration.
- Calling and election; many are called, few are chosen, he that is greatest among us is to be the servant of all. In this movement everyone is called to be a candidate. A diligent search using delegated representation from the Jefferson/Moses model finds our very best and most qualified. A call is issued to run for office. Those who issue the call, free those chosen to run and ultimately everyone from party politics, special interest, mob democracy and money power by doing the campaigning and by eliminating the sell off of political influence. We require all those thus called to voluntarily reject special interest money, party entanglements, the sell off of spoils to an ignorant majority or bow to the influence of money power. In return movement does all the campaigning. Instead of one person campaigning we have an army of dedicated campaigners telling the story of a better system and a better less encumbered Independent candidate. We use modern communication tools and personal educating to spread the word instead of paid promotion. Our candidate will be more time on the job and less time seeking re-election and political support. We also have the advantage of saying our candidate was called to serve by fellow concerned citizens. This is far more powerful than others who simply want the job. We must guard against the "buying of an election". We then support, sustain, evaluate and limit terms of the independent candidate both before and after election.
- Rights and Responsibilities; These cannot be separated. The only way to maintain our rights is to also demand the return of the associated responsibilities.
- The power of love vs. the love of power; the great battle of the ages is upon us as two systems of government are competing for acceptance in America today. Limited government supporting a sovereign people under God as envisioned by our nation's founders is driven by the power of love. Unlimited government exalting a class of men as demigods supported by the force of government, with a people held in servitude as envisioned by the great last days false prophet Karl Marx (his system promises utopia but in practice delivers Hell on earth) is driven by the love of power. We herby espouse the former and reject the latter.

- Limited government = Individual Sovereignty, Greatest Freedom, Most Prosperity
Unlimited Government= State Sovereignty, Limited Freedom, Diminishing Prosperity
- The law; Anciently, in times of righteousness, the Lord led His people through political leaders called judges. The honor was not in the person temporarily sitting upon the judgment seat but rather with the judgment seat itself, which belongs to the Great Jehovah. The role of the judge was not to make laws, but rather to bring reconciliation between the people and God's eternal everlasting law. Our return to righteousness will be preceded by the restoration of our judges (political leaders) as at the first. This entails a change of heart in those we call to serve and in the people who issue the call. (Isaiah 1:26) This is the time of political restitution.
- Work and glory; the work begins with the individual and the covenant power of Republic. As individual sovereigns when we seek to be represented and govern ourselves according to true law, we become an individual republic; this then naturally extends to our family then neighborhood and ultimately our nation. In order for it to be a true republic it must be based upon true law, or God's law. America was built and prospered as a religious nation. The bible is our most important founding document. The great American miracle is that as our people accepted the responsibilities of self rule, the blessings of heaven flowed making the individual sovereigns and citizens of America richer in terms of life quality than any king that ever lived. God's rule is self rule. Rejection of self rule is a rejection of God (1Sam 8:6,7 and 10:19). This is the great work necessary to precede the glory. We align ourselves with the laws and order of heaven and eliminate every law, ordinance, or practice not in harmony with this and our nations founding documents.
